School of Design, Arts and Humanities

Dear Viviane,

Please accept this letter of recognition for your inclusion in the student work exhibition on display in Academic Affairs at the Marymount University Main House. It is with great pride that we honor the accomplishments of our students through their creative and thoughtful art, design and scientific inquiry. The projects on view represent a range of topics across various disciplines including printmaking, photography, drawing, ceramics, physics, interior design and graphic design.

Congratulations on your excellent work. We wish you all the best in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Hesham El-Rewini, Ph.D., P.E.
Provost & Senior Vice President
Academic Affairs
